Dan Beard Council
Silver Beaver Award
Nomination Form

The Silver Beaver Award is given by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America upon recommendation of the Dan Beard Council to persons who have given outstanding service to youth over an extended period of time. The local Council may make a limited number of recommendations each year, according to its registered units.

This award is bestowed upon only those persons who have given continued, unselfish, and effective service to the community, usually through the program of the Boy Scouts of America, but not limited to Scouting. Because the award may not be applied for personally, only those persons who have been nominated by their Scouting peers are considered.
