

Denver Area Council BSA and the Conservation Committee presents

Leave No Trace

Minimum Impact Outdoor Techniques

Trainer Course

Lizard Head Shelter, Camp Magness, Peaceful Valley Scout Ranch
22799 N. Elbert Road, Elbert, CO 80106

Friday, 9/19/2014 6:00 PM - 10:00 PM

Saturday, 9/20/2014 7:00 AM - 7:00 PM

Participants must complete all 16 hours of training to become a Leave No Trace Trainer.

Participants learn LNT principles, skills and ethics through a combination of discussion, presentation, and hands-on activities. They learn and practice techniques for teaching these concepts.

Those completing the course will be Leave No Trace Trainers, recognized by the Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics.

Those who complete the course are prepared to:

- Understand, demonstrate, and teach minimum impact techniques to friends, family, scouting groups, and other community groups.
- Teach Leave No Trace Awareness classes at camporees, merit badge colleges.
- Lead discussions on outdoor ethics and help others explore their own personal outdoor ethic.
- Qualifies Boy Scouts as troop Leave No Trace Trainers.

Scout leaders, Boy Scouts over 14, and Venturing youth are welcome.

Youth 14-16 must be accompanied by parent or Scoutmaster, age 17 with Course Director approval.

Course Cost: $30.00 (includes program materials, Saturday group breakfast & lunch)
