Opportunity Funds are granted on the basis of financial need to Scouts in the Annawon Council. This form is intended only for registered members of the Annawon Council. If you are not a member of Annawon Council, you must apply through your own council. It must be understood that this is an application for Opportunity Funds, and not a guarantee that the Scout will receive financial aid. The parent or guardian will be notified if the Opportunity Fund has been granted. Payment will be made to the unit's registration account. Only registration fees, uniforms, books, and Council activities will be considered for financial aid.
