

BOY SCOUT RELIGIOUS AWARDS

How do I get started?

The Boy Scouts of America approves religious awards which are developed and administered by most of the world's religions. See the headings below for how you can get an awards program started for your Scouts. More resources can be found as links to the Religious Emblems Program page on the Heart of Virginia Council, BSA web site: www.HoVC.org / choose RESOURCES / choose RELIGIOUS EMBLEMS.

CATHOLIC

1. Contact your priest for Cub Scout/Webelos award (Parvuli Dei).
2. Contact the Richmond Diocese office on Youth Ministry for more on Cubs. Contact Diocese Office for Boy Scouts /Venturer awards (Ad Altare Dei, and Pope Pius XII) to locate a certified counselor. Angela Hamrick, (804) 622-5115, ahamrick@RichmondDiocese.org.
3. Materials available at the Diocese Office, the local Scout Shop, and the National Catholic Committee on Scouting®, <http://www.nccs-bsa.org/>.

ISLAMIC
