with accommodating most diets, including food allergies, religious restrictions, and other health-related diets We are happy to accommodate any diet for religious, medical or allergy needs; however, this form must be submitted at least three weeks prior to arrival at camp. Please complete and submit this form to Jara Bau Registered Dietitian for Kandle Dining Services at jara@kandledining.com . Fax number 859.356.4747.  While at camp, your child could be served one of many dining styles. He or she may participate in family style dining, cafeteria style dining and/or self-serve bars. It is the camp's expectation that by sending your child to camp, he or she is the necessary knowledge of their diet and can manage their food choices. Camp cannot guarantee an allergen free environment. Careful consideration needs to be taken for campers with severe allergies, particularly those susceptible airborne transmission. If your child has a severe allergy or dietary restriction, contact the camp directors to discuss if camp is properly equipped to manage your child's needs. While we work to meet all dietary requirements, food is prepared in an area with milk, eggs, peanut, tree nut, wheat, soy and fish and cross-contamination can occur. In consideration of the Camper's participation at camp, the Camper and Parent/Guardian jointly and severally release, forever discharge, hold harmless, and covenant not to sue, Kandle Dining, or any of their related or affiliated entities (the "Denver Area Council Parties") with respect to any injury, loss, or damage, to person or property associated with participation in any Denver Area Council programs, whether arising from negligence or otherwise (the "Claims"). The Camper and Parent/Guardian jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Denver Area Council Partie from and against the Claims. The release and indemnity set forth herein shall be unconditional, absolute and interprete to the fullest and broadest release and indemnity	Peaceful Valley	Cris Dobbins	Camp Dietler	Magness Adventure Camp	W.E.S.
