

2017 VENTURING ADVISOR POSITION-SPECIFIC TRAINING GRAYBACK DISTRICT

TRAINING DATE: Saturday, January 28, 2017

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is intended to provide Venturing crew Advisors and associated support volunteers with the basic information they need to help youth leaders manage a crew. The course includes the 2014 updates to Venturing and aligns with the new Venturing leader materials.

Trained leaders at all levels are the key to quality Scouting programs that fulfill the mission of the Boy Scouts of America and attract and retain youth members. Participants will discuss the roles and responsibilities of Venturing crew Advisors and how to keep youth positively engaged in the functions of a successful crew.

POSITIONS: New crew chartered organization personnel, crew Advisors and associate Advisors, crew committee members, commissioners, and other adults involved with Venturing should attend.

LOCATION: LDS Church, 306 E. Avenue L Street, Calimesa, CA

TIME: 8:00 AM to 12:00 Noon

COST: $5.00 (covers printed materials, refreshments, etc.)
