

2018 PACKING LIST

What to Bring to a Camp In

Campers are encouraged to bring as little as possible. There will be very little down time, so campers should not need additional distractions.

We suggest you wear:

- Layers: The building temperature fluctuates depending on what activity you are doing. It is best to be able to peel off a layer if you get hot.
- Sneakers (or your most comfortable shoes): There is a lot of walking during the Camp In. Campers are strongly encouraged not to wear flip-flops, Crocs, or sandals.

We suggest you bring:

- A sleeping bag and pillow
- A camping pad (children) / twin size air mattress(adults)
- A toothbrush and toothpaste
- A hair brush
- A sleeping mask*
- Flashlight (chaperones only)
- A large, clearly marked trash bag to put all your stuff into.

We suggest you do not bring:

- Additional food: Gum, food, and drinks are not permitted on the exhibit floors.
- Pajamas: You will be sleeping in the clothes you wore to the Camp In. Changing facilities are not available.
- Anything you need to plug in, with the exception of medical devices. These should be listed on the Group Advisory form.
- Radios, MP3 players, hand-held/portable video games, TVs, or lanterns
- Large sums of money
- Sneakers with wheels (Heelys)
- Tents
- Raised cots or chairs to sleep in

Please note that Liberty Science Center is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

Notes to remember:

- Changing clothes is not permitted.
- Shirts must be worn at all times.
- Lingerie is not permitted.
- Campers must be accompanied by a chaperone at all times.
- Shoes are to be worn when walking on the exhibit floors.
- Flashlights and cell phones are for chaperone use only.

*Please remember, for your safety, the lights in the building will never go completely out.
If you need darkness to sleep, please bring a sleeping mask.
