Miscellaneous Classes For Adults

Cub Scout STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics)

STEM is a hot topic these days for both schools and the BSA. Come learn why STEM is important, how to integrate STEM into your den and pack program, and participate in some fun projects that you can take back to your unit.

STEM Scouts Leaders (4 period course)

The STEM Leader Training course provides new STEM Scouts leaders with the basic information needed to conduct a successful Lab Meeting. STEM Scouts is a coed program of the Boy Scouts of America using methods such as the Scout Oath and Scout Law, setting and achieving goals, uniforms, leadership skills, and adult role models. STEM Scouts is designed to teach young people science, technology, engineering, and mathematics as they develop leadership skills and expand those skills into future careers by giving them the opportunity to work in teams, challenging themselves, and connect with STEM professionals. STEM Scouts is a yearlong program coinciding with the academic school year.

The New Venturing Program

The Venturing awards and recognitions programs are designed to help Venturers grow in the areas of adventure, leadership, personal development and service. Awards serve as benchmarks that give Venturers a structure for developing their own personal vision into manageable goals that lead to recognition by their peers, mentors and the larger community. For a preview of what the new Venturing Program is all about, please attend this overview.

BALOO Basic Adult Leader

Outdoor Orientation Cost of BALOO is $20 and will be reflected that on your receipt.

A one day training event that introduces Cub Scout leaders and parents to the skills needed to plan and conduct pack outdoor activities, particularly pack camping.

Youth Protection Training

Youth Protection Training is required for all BSA registered volunteers. Get the latest training TODAY! The Boy Scouts of America takes great pride in the quality of our adult leadership. Being a leader in the BSA is a privilege. The quality of the program and the safety of our youth members call for high-quality adult leaders. Youth Protection Training must be completed by each Scouter every two years.

Cub Scouting Classes For Adults

Beyond Online Cub Leader Training

Go outside the box of online training. Share and experience training with other leaders that are doing the same thing that you are. Share ideas and experiences, learn from each other to grow a pack and make it fun.

The Cub Scouting Adventures

Come ask and get answers to any questions you may have on the advancement structure and/or implementation of the Cub Scouting rank adventures from two of the volunteers who helped to write them!

Den Games

Learn games that can be played during den/pack meetings that will incorporate the skills and values of Scouting.

Magical Award Ceremonies

Learn how to deliver the "Magic" of Cub Scouting.

Cub Scout Awards - Where Do They Go?

My son has earned all of this bling. Where does it go on his uniform? Come find out and learn from other Cub Scout leaders.

Webelos to Scout Transition

Discover ways to make the move for new Boy Scouts natural and fun. The passage from Cub Scout pack to Boy Scout troop should be smooth, with no time lost in between. By the time Webelos Scouts are ready to cross over, they and their families should be familiar and comfortable with the youth and adult leaders of the troop, their role in the troop, troop activities, and feel excited about beginning this new adventure.

Webelos Den Success

Designed for Webelos and Bear Den Leaders. Where to get help to make the most of the program and squeeze out all it has to offer on the road to becoming Boy Scouts.

Webelos Camping

Go camping with Webelos with confidence! This course covers rules and policies, where to camp, reviewing equipment, how to prepare and how to make your camping experience the best possible. Please note: this course does NOT take the place of OWLS, Outdoor Leader Training for Webelos.

Crafting with Cub Scouts

Learn why crafts are important to Cub Scouting, how to make them age appropriate, and help Scouts be successful and achieve a sense of accomplishment. Also learn some ideas of crafts that can be worked into the new Cub Scout adventures.

Special Needs Training For Adults

Generations in Scouting

Different generations have different values experiences, learning methods, attitudes, behaviors and motivations. This interactive course will help you understand the differences, recognize the strength each generation brings, and find a shared vision to work together.

Diversity Awareness

Living in a rapidly changing world presents Scouts and Scouters with ethical and social challenges dealing with individuals from different ethnic and social groups. Learn how to teach Scouts and Scouters the necessary skills to deal with our diverse world.

Special Needs Registration and Advancement Procedures

For registered leaders and parents, learn how to register a Scout with a disability as a Scout with special needs for all levels of Scouting. Learn how to apply for modified and/or alternative advancement procedures using the BSA Individual Scout Achievement Plan for Boy Scouts, Venture Scouts, or Varsity Scout with special needs. Learn how to register for beyond the age of eligibility for a Boy Scout, Venture Scout or a Varsity Scout with developmental disabilities or severe physical limitations. Handouts and check lists provided.

Solving Behavioral Issues

We know your unit does not have any behavioral issues but here's an opportunity to learn how other units deal with behavioral challenges involving Scouts and Scouters.

Bullying and Hazing Prevention

An informative session on Bullying and hazing identification and prevention. This is becoming a larger problem in society and we need ways to recognize and respond. It happens in Scouting and tears units apart. So attend and get ideas, suggestions and thoughts on how to recognize and respond to this important issue.

Emotional Fitness for Teens

Almost 95% of us experience homesickness at some time and consequently, we can all benefit by learning more about it. In addition, in order to best support Scouts in overnight activities such as camp outs, it is helpful to be aware of what homesickness is, how to recognize it and what to do about it. This training is designed for adult and youth leaders wishing to learn more. Specific strategies will be provided on how to prepare for homesickness both as adults and youth, how to recognize it, and how to support Scouts or adults who may be struggling. All participants will be given a free wallet card with tips, tricks and strategies.

Special Needs Awareness Training

An informational session on youth with special needs and Scouting and what resources are available to Scouters and Scout units to help them be successful with their Scouting journey.

Planning Camping Meals

Learn how to use basic nutrition facts and available tools (like Nutritional Facts Panels) to teach Scouts how to plan healthy, balanced meals for camping trips and organize a "Food Education" program for your unit.

Boy Scout Youth Training

Den Chief Conference - Training for Den Chiefs

An all-day training session for Boy and Venturing Scouts who act as Den Chiefs for Webelos and Cub Scout dens.

Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troops (ILST)

This class is aimed at youth leadership in the troop presenting methods for Scouts to implement leadership training and development, and give tips on how to promote and run a youth run unit. Scouts planning on attending Big Horn/NYLT training need to complete this course.

Commissioner Classes

District Commissioner/Assistant District Commissioner Basic Training

District and Assistant District Commissioner Basic Training contains your orientation to being an effective Administrative Commissioner. From recruiting Unit Commissioners to Counseling Unit leaders and Commissioners in the most challenging of situation, to using the Online Commissioner Administration system, your time will be well spent.

ComBaT - Commissioner Basic Training

Do you enjoy helping the Scouting Program? Do you drink water? Do you breathe air? If you can answer yes to these 3 basic questions, then you probably qualify as someone who could be a valuable contributor to the Scouting Program in terms of being a Unit Commissioner. This class tells you what being a Commissioner is all about and provides you with the Basics for being a Unit Commissioner.

Commissioner Tools

An introduction to the new Commissioner Tools on My.Scouting.Org. We'll cover the basics of accessing the system, entering Unit Contacts and using some of the many tools that are available to Commissioners.

Commissioner Journey to Excellence (JTE)

JTE evaluation assists the leaders in guiding the program to success. Journey to Excellence is an evaluation tool designed to be used throughout the Scouting year. It measures key points in a Scouting unit that are indicators of successful Scouting. Learn the easy and correct use of this tool for the sake of your Scouts and volunteers from an experienced District Commissioner.

All Tied Up In Knots

Having trouble learning to tie basic Cub and Boy Scout knots? Or, would you like to learn new ways to teach the old knots? Then sign up for All Tied Up In Knots, a beginners knot tying class for mainly Cub leaders but for anyone that is not comfortable with knot tying.
